The Faculty

Corey Phelps - MELE Program Director - Strategy
Corey Phelps is an award-winning teacher, researcher and Professor of Strategy at McGill. He has spent the past twenty years researching the origins of corporate innovation and growth and has published his research in leading academic journals. His forthcoming book on innovative problem solving will be published in 2018 by Palgrave Macmillan. Corey completed his Ph.D. at the Stern School of Business, New York University and has been a faculty member at HEC Paris and the University of Washington, where he received multiple awards for his teaching.

Henry Mintzberg - Leadership
Professor Henry Mintzberg is considered by many academics and business leaders to be the world’s premiere authority on management. The recipient of the 2014 CK Prahalad Distinguished Scholar-Practitioner Award, he writes prolifically on the topics of management and business strategy, with more than 160 articles, 15 books and 100,000 citations on Google Scholar to his name. His seminal book, The Rise and Fall of Strategic Planning, is organized around the idea that to change someone it is first necessary to “unfreeze” his or her basic beliefs, then “refreeze” around the new ones. Before joining the McGill faculty, Henry Mintzberg received his Ph.D. in management from the MIT Sloan School of Management in 1968, and a Bachelors of English from McGill University.

Mike Ross - Innovation
Mike Ross is a faculty member at the McGill Executive Institute with extensive experience in helping companies thrive in the face of disruption. He delivers both learning programs and tailored consulting solutions on innovation, business models, organizational culture, and building robust yet flexible strategic visions, plans, and approaches. Mike is a former consultant at McKinsey & Company and holds an MBA from McGill University and degrees in law and international relations from the University of Toronto.

Jerry Remillard - Leadership and Change
Jerry Remillard has been a faculty member of the McGill Executive Institute since 2005 and brings over 25 years of experience in strategic management, team dynamics and coaching. He conducts numerous senior executive forums and coaching initiatives for major corporate, government and non-profit organizations. His wealth of corporate “hands-on” experience adds to his popularity as a seminar leader, he served as Director of Strategic Planning at Kraft Foods and has played key roles in other major corporations. He holds a Masters In Business Administration (MBA), McGill University.

Guest CEO
A distinguishing feature of this program is the deep impact which comes from “voices in the field” – current or past CEOs relating personal insights on operations or challenges directly linked to the program content. Past programs have included executives from Cirque du Soleil, Bombardier, Ericsson, and more.
