McGill Executive Institute

- Custom Executive Education
- Leadership Programs
- Mini-MBA Series
- Open Enrollment Seminars

Unleash your potential
 Ranked among the world’s best, McGill University is renowned for its thought leadership, high academic standards and an international dimension that is unsurpassed in North America.

As part of the university since 1956, the McGill Executive Institute helps managers and leaders prepare professionally and personally for the workplace challenges ahead. Our learning solutions apply to companies, government services and not-for-profit organizations of all sizes.

We blend the best of business, consulting, and academic insights to help leaders reach their potential.

Real-World, Results-Centered
- learning that promotes future-ready insights, active participation and tools for sustained impact

Outstanding Educators
- over 200 dynamic and engaging professors, global experts and thought leaders

Integrated Solutions
- blended classroom, distance learning and digital collaboration

Innovative Perspectives
- bringing fresh ideas and international research from 11 faculties

Values-Based Learning Partner
- we stand by our values of exceeding expectations, genuine caring, collaboration and lifelong learning

Unleash your potential
Custom Executive Education

Turnkey solutions to take your company to the next level

Our many years of in-depth experience with clients from around the world put us in the ideal position to design and deliver programs that meet—and exceed—your expectations. No problem is ever too big or complex.

Leadership Programs

A fresh look at your leadership transformation

Our research-inspired programs for current and emerging leaders are designed to create catalysts for positive change.

You will come away with the confidence and capability to face workplace challenges and advance in your career.

Mini-MBA Series

Are you ready to reach new heights?

Join Canada’s first and largest program of its kind to capture key learning points of an MBA in a compact and cost-effective format. It’s a unique opportunity to equip yourself with practical management skills that you can put to work immediately.

- Cycle I
  - Executive Development Course (EDC)
- Cycle II
  - Advanced Management Course (AMC)
- Cycle III
  - Integrated Management Thinking (IMT)

Open Enrollment Seminars

Develop specific skills to deliver excellence

Our concise seminars address the top trends and changing needs of today’s business world. Key themes include collaborative communication, financial acumen, essential management skills, design thinking, growth strategies and much more.

These seminars are designed for managers at all levels who want to acquire new skills, refresh their knowledge, exceed their goals and gain a competitive advantage.

Contact a learning advisor

+1 514 398-3970 | executive@mcgill.ca
Go beyond what you thought possible.